17. What are the three central teachings of our Church about the Blessed Virgin Mary? (CCC 490-493, 966)

- Immaculate Conception: Mary was immaculately conceived. During the normal course of human procreation between Mary’s earthly parents, God the Father kept Mary free from original sin. He accomplished this in anticipation of the merits of Christ on the Cross. It does not mean, therefore, her sinless life, perpetual virginity or the miraculous conception of Our Divine Lord by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Immaculate Conception is a dogma of the Roman Catholic Church.
- Perpetual Virginity: Mary was a perpetual virgin. To further illustrate that is God’s work that saved us, the fact that Mary remained a virgin after the birth of Jesus was defended by such fathers of the early Church as St. Ambrose, Pope Leo I, and St. Augustine. It was defined by the Church at the second Council of Constantinople in A.D. 553.
- Assumption: Mary was assumed body and soul into Heaven. Finally the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians:

- Pope Pius XII solemnly defined this doctrine of faith on November 1, 1950. Mary currently enjoys what we all hope to share with Her.
